

DIRIGO SAFETY, LLC
PUBLIC SAFETY ADVOCATES

First Line Supervisor

Police officers and newly promoted sergeants in law enforcement agencies frequently are unprepared for their roles as leaders/supervisors. In this course of instruction, officers will be given easy to understand leadership concepts, which will enable them to become an effective supervisor in the field. (Meets MLEAP Standard 3.08 Supervisor Training) The course teaches the importance of performance management and sets the students on the right path to supervise

What Students Will Learn:

- ✓ How to transition from doing the job to supervising staff who do the job.
- ✓ How to learn who you are, who your people are, and what is the job.
- ✓ What is core essential job functions, and how do you prioritize them.
- ✓ How to identify an adaptive vs. technical solution to common problems.
- ✓ What are leadership styles, and which one you are.
- ✓ Why discipline and when.
- ✓ How does morale and motivation differ.
- ✓ What vicarious liability is.

Date: January 25, 2022

Time: 0800-1600

Location: Dirigo Safety LLC
225 First Flight Dr.
Auburn, ME

COST: $179 pp (Includes Lunch)

Instructor: Adam Gormely

Over 30 years of law enforcement experience.