

TM

Field Training Officer School

A LEADER IS ONE WHO KNOWS THE WAY, GOES THE WAY, AND SHOWS THE WAY

John C. Maxwell

This 2.5-day class is a combination of the San Jose Model, the modified version-the PTO Model, along with other best practices to create an advanced, proven, up-to-date training that is applicable to current Law Enforcement.

MLEAP COURSE!

Topics Include:

- ✓ Creating a standardized program
- ✓ The role of an FTO
- ✓ Ethics & Liabilities
- ✓ Leadership traits, relationships, and conduct
- ✓ Effective teaching methods
- ✓ Setting expectations
- ✓ Daily & Weekly Observation Reports
- ✓ Training scenarios for application of learned material

Several training dates and locations available throughout the year.

Check the website for more details!

REGISTER HERE

CONTACT US

Ashley Bedard

207-200-1112

INSTRUCTOR:
Kyle Tilsley, MSP Ret.

Kyle has spent 28 years with the Maine State Police, the last 3 as Troop Commander. He has been the primary FTO for many Troopers in his career and was the Troop B FTO Supervisor for 8 years. Kyle was a Trooper for 17 years, promoted to Sergeant in 2011, and promoted to Lieutenant in 2019. His passion remains in supporting LE, teaching the importance of FTO and leadership, and investing in future generations of officers.